

Dr. (Surg Cmde) Varinder Singh Bedi (NM)

He served the Indian Navy for 30 years as a Surgeon and Vascular Surgeon at various hospitals of the Armed Forces following which he joined Sir Ganga Ram Hospital as Chairman of the Department. Decorated with Nao Sena Medal for services during Gujarat Earthquake and GOC-in-C Western Command Commendation Card for work at Army Hospital R & R. He took premature retirement from Army Hospital R & R in Dec 2012 and joined Sir Ganga Ram Hospital since then. He enhanced his skills in three Vascular Surgery centres across Germany (Katharinen Hospital, Stuttgart; University of Cologne and Evangelical Krankenhaus, Mulheim).

He is the Past President of the Vascular Society of India (2013-2015) and Past President of WFVS (World Federation of Vascular Societies-2015-2016). He has been bestowed with honorary corresponding membership of the German Vascular Society. He is the founder member of the Vascular Society of India. He delivered the Robert Rutherford Oration at the European Society of Vascular Surgery at Lyon, France on 21-09-2017 on "Terror Trauma"

Besides Endovascular Management of Aortic Aneurysms, he has one of the largest series of Eversion / Modified Eversion Endarterectomies for Carotid Artery Stenosis in India. He is a teacher and examiner for Vascular Surgery since three decades.