

Peter Subramaniam, MBBS, FRACS, A/FRACMA

Peter Subramaniam, MBBS, FRACS, A/FRACMA, is a Consultant Vascular Surgeon, The Practice Principal and Managing Director of Adelaide Vascular Clinic in Adelaide, Australia. Dr. Subramaniam graduated from The University of Melbourne with Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) degree in 1988. Completed his residency at Royal Melbourne Hospital Then pursues his postgraduate training in General Surgery at Royal Melbourne, Royal Hobart Hospitals and in Vascular Surgery at Austin and Repatriation Medical Centre, Alfred Hospital in Melbourne and Royal Brisbane Hospital. He became a Fellow of The Royal Australasian College of Surgeons (FRACS) with both boards in General and Vascular Surgery. His education extended to hold an Associate Fellowship of Royal Australian College of Medical Administrators (A/FRACMA) and a Certification in Surgical Leadership from Harvard University. He is The President of The Australian and New Zealand Society of Vascular Surgery (ANZSVS), a Past President of The World Federation of Vascular Societies, a Chairman, State Committee of The Royal Australian College of Surgeons in Palmer Place, North Adelaide. a Co-Chairman in Vascular Clinical Committee for the Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) Review 2018-2020, a Chair of Council at The Australian Medical Association and a Board of Vascular Studies at The Royal Australian College of Surgeons. He served as an Executive member and Chair Relationships and Advocacy at The Australia and New Zealand Society of Vascular Surgery, an Advisor Vascular Surgeon in Medical Advisory Committee (MAC) at Healthscope Hospital, a Steering Committee in Australian Ethical Healthcare Alliance (AEHA). a Convenor of The Adelaide Vascular Surgical Trials 2001 – 2010, Vascular 2008 Annual Scientific Meeting (ANZSVS), Tripartite Meeting at The Royal Australasian College of Surgeons in 2011 and Annual Scientific Meeting for Safety and Sustainability in 2017. Dr. Subramaniam awarded the Best Scientific Paper (Peter Braithwaite Medal) and (Ethicon Prize) at The Royal Australian College of Surgeons Scientific Meetings, a Paul Bolton Foundation Research Grant from University of Tasmania and a highly commended award in Clinical Teaching (Alan Kerr Grant) from University of Adelaide and The Queen Elizabeth Hospital.